How we grew, and what did not change

What began as a single, focused practice in Istanbul has grown into a destination for international medical travel. The equipment, the techniques and the team have all changed. One principle has not.

The principle

Plan every treatment around a realistic, natural-looking result rather than a promise. If a procedure will not give you what you want, we say so – and we would rather lose a booking than plan the wrong operation.

WHAT HAS CHANGED OVER THE YEARS

- ✓ Techniques. From classic FUE to sapphire blades, DHI and long-hair work; from open to structured rhinoplasty; energy-based facial treatments alongside surgery.
- ✓ Facilities. From our earliest consultation rooms to fully equipped modern facilities with surgical and recovery care.
- ✓ Team. Specialists added only where they raised the standard – never for volume alone.
- ✓ Reach. Patients from Europe, the Middle East, North America and beyond; coordinators who speak their languages.

HOW WE JUDGE OURSELVES

- ✓ By outcomes, measured at the right time. Twelve months for hair; six to twelve for surgery. Not day three.
- ✓ By how informed patients feel. From the first online consultation to the last follow-up.
- ✓ By whether people come back, or send family. A long-term relationship is the result we are proudest of.

THREE VALUES, AS WE PRACTISE THEM

EMPATHY

Patient first

Comfort, clarity and time to decide, at every stage.

INNOVATION

Current technique

The latest methods – adopted when they are safer or better, not when they are new.

GROWTH

Continuous learning

Congresses, exchange with clinics abroad, and refining methods as evidence changes.

Ask us what we would not do for your case. The answer tells you how we plan.

The team behind each procedure

A result is made by people. At Estecenter that means board-certified surgeons and physicians, anaesthetists, specialist nurses and multilingual coordinators working as one team.

WHO YOU MEET, IN ORDER

1. Coordinator — Your single point of contact, in your language, from first message to final follow-up.
2. Surgeon — Assesses, plans, consents and operates. Named, and reachable before you travel.
3. Anaesthetist — Present throughout any general anaesthesia; meets you before surgery.
4. Nursing team — Theatre, recovery and aftercare, to strict hygiene protocols.

WHAT WE LOOK FOR IN A SPECIALIST

- Board certification and years of clinical experience in their field
- Continuous training in current techniques
- The habit of listening, and of explaining options honestly – including the ones they would not recommend
- A plan that fits your anatomy, your expectations and your budget

BEHIND THE SCENES

- Case review. Your plan is reviewed by the people who will carry it out, and they talk to each other.
- One standard. Departments share hygiene, safety and documentation protocols.
- No silos. A hair patient with a nasal concern, or a surgical patient asking about skin, is routed to the right colleague.

Language should never be the barrier. Our coordinators work in several languages, consent is taken in yours, and written aftercare is provided in your language.

Ask for the name of the surgeon who would handle your case; we will tell you.
